FOREWORD.

This Collection is now one of the oldest in the country, having been begun by Sir Godfrey Dalrymple-White as far back as 1889. The stimulus to commence was given to him by the late Lord Cheylesmore who was his Company Commander in the Grenadier Guards. Ever since then the Collection has been made with the greatest care. All doubtful medals have been eliminated.

Up to 1919, it was on a Campaign basis, and it contains a very full range of all Campaigns of the XIXth Century. For example, it has no less than nineteen Bars of the "Army of India" Medal (including an unique "Corygaum" Medal) out of the twenty-one Bars issued, and a five-bar medal to 76th Foot.

The Military General Service Medals range from one to thirteen bars and include such rarities as two "Roleia" single bars, the exceedingly rare "Benevente" bar, a single Bar "Sahagun", a two-bar "Corunna-Java", and an unique combination of Bars to a Sergeant of the Royal Waggon Train. It also contains the Gold Cross with five Clasps to Sir W. H. De Lancey, Qr.-Mr. General at Waterloo, a General Officers' Gold Medal to the Earl of Strafford, and four other Gold Medals. There are two "V.C." groups.

From 1919 the Collection has been made on a Regimental basis, and many great rarities to particular Regiments have been collected. These rarities are the most conspicuous in the case of the 7th, 8th and 15th Hussars, Royal Artillery, Grenadier, Coldstream and Scots Guards, the Royal Scots, Norfolk Regiment, Somerset Light Infantry, East Lancashire, Gloucestershire, West Riding, Border, South Staffordshire, South Lancashire, Welsh, Essex, Sherwood Foresters, Berkshire, West Kent, Manchester, York and Lancaster Regiments, Highland L.I., R. Irish Fusrs., Connaught Rangers, Rifle Brigade and R.A.S.C. (Waggon Train). The latter includes a M.G.S. Medal unique to the whole army.

Both the Regiments and the ships of the Hon. East India Company are well represented. There are also many rare and interesting Miscellaneous Medals such as those of the Cromwellian periods and for the Storming of Toubucan in 1700.

All the above, as well as most other medals, if of any regimental scarcity, have been verified from the Official Rolls, where available. The Medals are mostly in Mint, Very Fine or Fine Condition.

All Naval General Service Medals have been verified, unless otherwise stated; as, also, all the scarcer Medals of other Campaigns.

This Collection is believed to be unique among private collections.

It comprises 103 different bars of the "Naval General Service" Medal, including the unique bars "Rapid", 24th April, 1808, and "Superieure", 10th February, 1809, as well as several bars of which only two, three or four were issued. It has the complete set of bars for actions for which Gold Medals were issued, including the extremely rare bars "Surprise with Hermione" and "Bonne Citoyenne with Furieuse", as also the whole of the rare series "Off Rota" "Off the Pearl Rock", etc.

It has also the bars which commemorate all the actions (except one) of the American War of 1812-1815, including the exceedingly rare bars "Boat Service 28 April 1813" and "Pelican 14 Aug. 1813". The Gold Medal for Trafalgar is of exceptional interest, being that of Captain Rotheram of the "Royal Sovereign", Lord Collingwood's Flagship, which was the first ship in action at the Battle.

∵ On the night of the 4th Aug., 1855, when in command of a working party in the advanced trenches in front of the Quarries, he encouraged and incited his men, by his example, to work under dreadful fire; and, when there was some hesitation shown in consequence of the severity of the fire, he went into the open and worked with pick and shovel—thus showing the best possible example to the men. In the month of March, 1855, Major Elton volunteered with a small party of men, to drive off a body of Russians who were destroying one of our new detached works, and succeeded in doing so, taking prisoner one of the enemy with his own hands. On the night of the 7th of June, 1855, Major Elton was the first of the party to leave our trenches leading his men, and, when in the Quarries, he several times rallied his men around him. ∵ From the Hamilton Smith collection.

∵ The De Lanceys were descended from a wealthy Huguenot family, who went from Caen to America after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. In the short space of sixty years this family produced three celebrated soldiers.

Sir William was the only son of Steven De Lancey.

Governor of Tobago. His early career was one of renown, and in 1799 we find him Major of the 45*th Regiment at the age of* 21. On the 4*th April,* 1815, he married Magdalen Hall, but the escape of Napoleon from Elba necessitated his return to the battlefield.

At Waterloo, whilst talking to Wellington, a spent cannon ball struck him from his horse. By Wellington's orders he was carried in a blanket to a hut, where he was nursed by a sorrowing wife. After lingering ten days the hero died.

Gold Medal

EDWARD ROTHERHAM, Esquire,

Captain of H.M.S. "Royal Sovereign."

on the 21st October, MCCCV.

The Combined Fleets of France and Spain defeated.

∴ This is a medal of the greatest historical interest, for not only was the "Royal Sovereign" the flagship of Vice-Admiral Collingwood at Trafalgar, but, being the fastest sailer of the Fleet, she was into the enemy's line first and for twenty minutes, until the "Victory" came into action higher up, the only British ship engaged. At one time she was being battered by five enemy ships, the "Ste. Ana," "Fougeux," "San Leandro," "San Justo," and "Indomplable." She had five officers and forty-two men killed, and nine officers and eighty-five men wounded.

Captain Rotherham was born at Hexham, the son of a doctor. He served through the American War in Admiral Barrington's Squadron. He was first Lieutenant of "Culloden" and June 1st, 1794, and took over the French ship "Vengeur" until she sank, saving many of her men. Made Post Captain in 1800. During the first twenty minutes at Trafalgar Collingwood said to him, "What would Nelson not give to be here?"

He was awarded a "Vase of Honour," value 100 guineas.

PRICED CATALOGUES

of Coins and Medals.

AFTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is . . . .
